

The Department of Orthopaedic Surgery is seeking an energetic and creative academic board eligible/certified orthopaedic faculty members with specialization in Adult Joint Reconstruction for an appointment at the Assistant Professor and Associate Professor rank in the non-Senate, non-tenure track Health Sciences Clinical Professor series. Applicant should have specialty training experience that includes adult joint reconstruction, trauma related to lower extremities, degenerative diseases, and reconstruction. The successful candidates must hold a M.D. or M.D./Ph.D. degree(s) and be eligible for California Licensure. Salary will be commensurate with experience and qualifications.

All qualified applicants, including women and minority candidates, are encouraged and must apply by completing an online applicant profile and uploading the required documents at:

<https://recruit.ap.uci.edu/JPF07468>

The recruitment may also be viewed at:

<http://www.orthopaedicsurgery.uci.edu/clinicalseries.html>